4. Teen's family recovers $6.1M in death settlement

The family of a South Carolina teenager who was killed in a single-car collision will receive $6.1 million under a settlement.

Christopher Hart of the Hart Law Firm in Columbia, who represented the plaintiffs in the case, said the Aug. 31 settlement agreement required many of the details about the wrongful death case to be kept confidential.

However, he said the plaintiffs did not pursue a claim of economic damages.

"All parties are pleased with the terms of the settlement," Hart said.
